

GS2014-02, Exhibit A
Remission Reference Guide

Title & Code		Eligibility	Remission Benefit
GSR	3282	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Appointment eligibility requirements are met, and Appointment is at least 25%, and Appointment begins by the end of the first full month of the quarter. 	Tuition (incl. In Absentia) Full fees (incl. Health Insurance Premium (SHIP)) NRST *until advancement to candidacy for doctoral students Professional school students and students enrolled in self-supporting degree programs in this title receive an amount up to that remitted for academic graduate students.
TA Reader Tutor AI	2310 2850 2860 1506	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Appointment eligibility requirements are met, and Appointment is at least 25%, and Appointment begins by the end of the first full month of the quarter (unless a replacement ASE, refer to section II.F). 	Tuition Partial Fees: Student Services Fee, Student Services Health Fee and Health Insurance Premium (SHIP) Partial NRST *until advancement to candidacy for doctoral students Undergrads, professional school students and students enrolled in self-supporting degree programs receive an amount up to that remitted for academic graduate students.
No remission		<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Eligibility requirements for appointment not met and a PEP has not been approved; or Appointment is 0-20% (unless combined with another academic appointment of 25% or more); or Student is on filing fee; or Appointment is for the summer quarter.
No remission		There is no remission of PDST, filing fees, document fees, course materials fees, candidacy fees, or other campus charges incurred voluntarily or involuntarily.

- For the remission fee table for each eligible title, visit the Student Accounting Fee Remission page at <http://studentaccounting.ucdavis.edu/aid/feeremissions.cfm>
- Students receiving more than one type of award that is intended to pay tuition, fees, and/or NRST - If more than one type of award appears as a credit against tuition, fees, and/or NRST in a student's account, the sequence below is followed regarding what award is in the first position to pay remission: (1) Outside awards, (2) GSR appointment benefits, (3) ASE appointment benefits, (4) Department awards, (5) Fellowship awards, (6) Student loans, (7) Student payments.
- Dual appointments (e.g., student has a 25% GSR & 25% TA appointment) - If a student has two appointments, the remission is paid as follows: (1) Tuition, student services fees, and health insurance fees will be split proportionally to each salary fund source based on the distribution of salary expense; (2) Other campus-based fees will be charged to the GSR salary fund source; and (3) If applicable, full NRST is charged to the GSR salary fund source.