Dissertation/Thesis Support Group
Are you struggling in completing your dissertation or thesis writing? This group is a support space for graduate students who have completed their research or data collection and are in the writing stage of their dissertation or thesis. The group will focus on goal setting, time management, motivation enhancement, problem-solving, stress management, and building other skills relevant to completing the dissertation or thesis. We will meet every other week this spring quarter on Thursdays from 10:30 a.m. - Noon, starting October 5, 2017. For more information or to register to participate, contact Dr. Bai-Yin Chen, Coordinator of Counseling Services for Graduate Students, at bchen@shcs.ucdavis.edu.

Graduate Career Exploration Group
This group is co-sponsored by GradPathways and is for graduate students who want explore their career related preferences, identify the competitive fit of career options of interest or expand their consideration of possible careers. Group members will integrate data from their personal strengths, work and family perspectives, and career assessments with occupational information. Group members are asked to increase their exposure to occupational information and opportunities over the course of the term. Please note total cost of assessments is $20 (as $25 of the total $45 fee is paid for by Grad Studies) and expected time commitment for activities outside of the 1.5 hour, 6 session group time is approximately 1-2 hours per week. For more information visit: https://shcs.ucdavis.edu/services/groups/GCEG

Counseling Services
Dr. Bai-Yin Chen is a psychologist specializing in college mental health and graduate student concerns and issues. If you would like to set up an appointment with Dr. Chen, e-mail her at bchen@shcs.ucdavis.edu or call 530-752-2349 to schedule an appointment with Dr. Chen or one of the other counselors.
