Start your Fall Quarter off on the right foot! The beginning of the quarter is the ideal time to revise seminar papers for publication and presentations. Join us for an interactive workshop, where you will design a quarter-long work plan that will establish clear goals and the ways to achieve them. We strongly encourage you to bring a friend (or friends) in order to build in accountability for your work this quarter. You will leave the workshop with clear goals for a variety of projects.

Instructor: Alison Bright, Lecturer, University Writing Program
Dr. Bright earned her Ph.D. in education from UC Santa Barbara, her MA in English from Sonoma State University, and her BA in Spanish literature from UC Santa Cruz. She teaches a variety of upper division composition courses in the University Writing Program, including writing in elementary and secondary education, business writing, writing for social justice, and writing in the health professions. Her research interests include writing centers, writing tutor and teacher identity, and the preparation of writing teachers.
