YEAR 2+:
Continued Graduate Student Success

Monday, October 21, 2019
4:00-5:30pm | Garrison Room, 2nd Floor, Memorial Union

Please register:
https://year2andmoregraduatesuccess.eventbrite.com

In this workshop participants will explore how to be successful in their current and future years by thinking through goals and making an action plan. Moreno will guide participants in thinking through their yearly goals for the successful completion of their graduate degrees.

Light Refreshments be served.

Instructor: Josephine Moreno, Ph.D.
Josephine Moreno, Ph.D., is the Graduate Diversity Officer for the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences (HASS), and Education at UC Davis. Dr. Moreno is returning to UC Davis where she earned her B.S. in Textiles and Clothing and later held a position as a postdoctoral scholar from 1995-1996. After earning her doctoral degree in Textiles and Clothing from Iowa State University, Dr. Moreno was an Assistant Professor at the University of Rhode Island. For the past 17 years, Dr. Moreno has worked closely with prospective and current graduate students from diverse populations on financial, academic and personal matters at UC Berkeley and now UC Davis.