Dissertation/Thesis Support Group
9:30 am – 11:00 am on 10/11, 10/25, 11/8, 11/29, & 12/13
Participants must RSVP prior to participating in the group. This group is a support space for graduate students who have completed their research and are in the writing stage of their dissertation or thesis. The group will focus on goal setting, time management, motivation enhancement, problem-solving, stress management, and building other skills relevant to completing the dissertation or thesis. For more information or to register to participate, contact Dr. Bai-Yin Chen, Coordinator of Counseling Services for Graduate Students, at bchen@ucdavis.edu.

Graduate Career Exploration Group (GCEG)
Thursdays: 10:00 am – 11:45 am
This group is co-sponsored by GradPathways and is for graduate students who want to explore their career related preferences, identify the comparative fit of career options of interest or expand their consideration of possible careers. Group members will integrate data from their personal strengths, work and family perspectives, and career assessments with occupational information. Group members are asked to increase their exposure to occupational information and opportunities over the course of the term. Please note total cost of assessments is $20 (as $25 of the total $45 fee is paid for by Grad Studies) and expected time commitment for activities outside of the 1.5 hour, 6 session group time is approximately 1-2 hours per week. To learn more and register visit GCEG.
