Using ImaginePhD
to Set Goals and Explore Career Options:
for Graduate Students and Postdoctoral Scholars in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Tuesday, February 13, 2018
1:00-2:30pm - Garrison Room, Memorial Union, 2nd floor

Please register: https://usingimaginephd.eventbrite.com

ImaginePhD is a free and confidential career exploration and planning tool for humanities and social science graduate students and postdocs. At the end of this interactive workshop you will:

• Be able to navigate and get the most out of the ImaginePhD site
• Complete at least one assessment of your choice
• Map out at least two of your own career/program completion goals
• Know how to use an individual development plan and how it helps you achieve your goals
• Gain a greater understanding of both UC Davis and online resources for your personal professional development

To make the most of this session, please bring a laptop or tablet.

Instructor: Teresa Dillinger, PhD, Academic Administrator, Professional Development Programs, Graduate Studies, UC Davis and Project Lead, ImaginePhD
Teresa Dillinger manages and coordinates professional development programs for graduate students and postdoctoral scholars at UC Davis. She is the director of GradPathways and co-director of the Professors for the Future program. She is involved with a number of professional development programs and initiatives including Leaders for the Future, Mentoring at Critical Transitions, and the FUTURE/ NIH BEST program. Dr. Dillinger also serves the project lead for ImaginePhD, an online career exploration and planning platform for humanities and social sciences PhDs, developed through the Graduate Career Consortium.
