Exploring Career Paths & Creating an Action Plan Using ImaginePhD
for Graduate Students & Postdoctoral Scholars in the Humanities and Social Sciences

Thursday, February 28, 2019
12:00-1:30pm - Garrison Room, Memorial Union, 2nd floor

Pizza lunch will be served to those who register: https://w19imaginephd.eventbrite.com

Join us for this comprehensive session on how to get the most out of ImaginePhD - a free and confidential career exploration and planning tool.

Participants will be introduced to career paths and opportunities through self-assessment of skills, interests, and values. We will identify starting points for career exploration and using these assessments will see how your skills and interests align with particular career paths in the humanities and social sciences.

You will also have the opportunity to identify and develop your professional and career goals using the “SMART” planning method and incorporating these goals into ImaginePhD’s My Plan feature. Participants will leave with a time-based action plan to achieve their goals.

This workshop will help you identify what is most important to you in your future career and help you create an action plan to get there!

Please bring your laptop or tablet

Instructor: Teresa Dillinger, PhD, Academic Administrator, Professional Development Programs, Graduate Studies, UC Davis and Project Lead, ImaginePhD

Teresa Dillinger manages and coordinates professional development programs for graduate students and postdoctoral scholars at UC Davis. She is the director of GradPathways and co-director of the Professors for the Future program. Dr. Dillinger also serves the project lead for ImaginePhD, an online career exploration and planning platform for humanities and social sciences PhDs, developed through the Graduate Career Consortium.