Based on Nigel Caplan's book, Grammar Choices for Graduate and Professional Writers (2nd Edition, University of Michigan Press, 2019), this workshop will look at grammar topics that present the biggest problems for multilingual students in graduate writing, including sentence structure, noun phrases, and reporting verbs.

Instructor: Catherine Hatzakos is the Assistant Director of the UC Davis Graduate Writing for Multilingual Students program and a Lecturer in the University Writing Program. She received her BA in Political Science with a concentration in International Relations and her MA TESOL from California State University, Sacramento. She has 20 years' experience teaching English as a Second Language and college composition at all levels, and has been at UC Davis for the last five years.
