PURPOSE: The Carlson Prize is awarded the student who best demonstrates "scholarly achievement and promise for teaching and research." This student must have advanced to candidacy in a Ph.D. program in the field of Physiology or have completed such a program during the academic year preceding award of the prize.

SELECTION CRITERIA: The candidate must have demonstrated "scholarly achievement and promise for teaching and research.

ELIGIBILITY: Students eligible are those who have advanced to candidacy in an academic program for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in the field of Physiology, or who have completed such a program during the academic year preceding award of the prize. Thus, eligible students are those who will have advanced to candidacy by June 2017 or those that received their Ph.D. in 2016.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS: February 17, 2017

REQUIRED MATERIALS: Please submit a nomination letter and a copy of the candidate's thesis/dissertation [which shall be returned] or other evidence of scholarly achievement (e.g., reprints of published papers) to Dr. Catherine VandeVoort, in care of Dawne Shell (drshell@ucdavis.edu), CBS Dean’s Office.

AWARD: The Loren D. Carlson Prize consists of:
- $3,000 award
- Certificate commemorating the Prize
- Name will be inscribed on the Carlson Prize plaque

If you would like further information on the award, please contact Dawne Shell at (530) 752-9092 or drshell@ucdavis.edu.