Limited Submission – Internal application due October 31st at 5:00pm

American Psychological Foundation
Elizabeth Munsterberg Koppitz Child Psychology Graduate Student Fellowship

The fellowship supports graduate research projects and scholarships in child psychology. The goals of the program are to 1) nurture excellent young scholars for careers in the areas of psychology, such as child-clinical, pediatric, school, educational and developmental psychopathology and 2) to support scholarly work contributing to the advancement of knowledge in these areas.

Funding – $25,000 for one year

Eligibility – Applicants must be advanced to candidacy at the time of application; demonstrate research competence and area commitment. Evidence of IRB approval is due at the time of award.

More Information – For more information see URL: https://www.apa.org/apf/funding/koppitz

Internal Competition – UC Davis may submit one application to the sponsor. A pre-application is due to Graduate Studies by 5:00pm on October 31st, 2019. Please submit the following items as a single PDF to ahelalian@ucdavis.edu. Details on what the sections should include may be found here.

- Project description (5 pg. limit)
- Project timeline (1 pg. limit)
- Budget and budget justification (1 pg. limit)
- Abbreviated CV (5 pg. limit)
- Letters of recommendation from your graduate advisor and your department chair.

Applications will be reviewed by faculty in related disciplines. The campus applicant will be notified of their selection no later than November 12, 2019. The final proposal is due to the sponsor on November 15, 2019.

Deadlines
October 31, 2019 – Pre-applications for the following limited submission due to Grad Studies
November 12, 2019 – Campus applicant is notified
November 15, 2019 – Proposal due to the American Psychological Foundation

Please send any questions to ahelalian@ucdavis.edu.