

THE GRADUATE GROUP IN IMMUNOLOGY COMPENSATION PLAN

Revised plan effective 10/01/16

The Graduate Group in Immunology provides competitive compensation for their graduate students. Students will be paid annual stipends in 12 monthly installments of $2,462.97 within the Graduate Student Researcher (GSR) title. The annual stipend rate is $29,555.65. The appointment will be structured as a GSR, Step VIII at 46.34%. Graduate Program Fellowship Allocation, awards, fellowships and other generated income can be used to offset the stipend. The GSR title requires that in-state and out-of-state fees be paid at the current rate.

STUDENT STATUS

APPOINTMENT TYPE & PERCENTAGE

STUDENT STATUS	APPOINTMENT TYPE & PERCENTAGE
Doctoral Students
Students with Baccalaureate level degrees. The 46.34% appointment represents salary. The GSR title requires that in-state and out-of-state fees also be paid from the same funding source.	GSR Step VIII	46.34%
Rotation Students (during first 6 mos. only)
Graduate Program Fellowship Allocation will provide support for the academic year (October through April). This represents tuition and partial salary.	----	Payments are structured through the BANNER system. Tuition is deducted and balance is paid to the student directly through Student Accounting.
Masters Students I (Research Plan)
MS I students are eligible for the same salary plan as doctoral students.	GSR Step VIII	46.34%
Masters Students II (By Exam Only)
Expected to be self-supporting.	----	----

Dr. Charles L. Bevins
Chair, Graduate Group in Immunology

08/01/16

Date

For question and/or concerns with pay plan details, please contact the GGI Business Office at (530) 754-0103.